Lake Pit

See our most iconic vista.

Pits 3, 4, 61/67

Discover how each pit at La Brea is a unique Ice Age time capsule.

Pit 9

Follow in the footsteps of mammoths!

Pit 13

Find out how tar traps mostly carnivores.

Project 23

Stop by our current excavation site to see what we've discovered today!

Pit 91

Look down into an active fossil dig.

Pleistocene Garden

See which Ice Age plants still thrive in L.A. and elsewhere.

La Brea Tar Pits Museum

Five million fossils from the past 55,000 years put the La Brea Tar Pits Museum in a class all its own.

Observation Pit*

Descend into a pit to experience the park's first museum in this special exhibit. Open to schools with advance reservations March–May.

**Reservations Required*

PLEASE REMEMBER

- Stay within eyesight of your students at all times.
- Only touch objects when invited, and touch gently.
- Eat all food outside in the Park—water is okay inside the Museum!
- Walk and use quiet voices.
- Visit the Pleistocene Garden with your students, not the Atrium. The Atrium is too small for school groups.
- Look for Museum staff if you need help or have questions.
- Wear your Museum sticker during your entire visit for re-entry.
- Lead students to reservations on time; they are only guaranteed at your scheduled time.
- Don't forget the Tar Pits! See excavators in action at Project 23, peek down into Pit 91, or visit one of our many historic pits labeled on the map below.
